TASKS THAT WILL BE PERFORMED DURING THE CONTEST

- Each competitor will speak on the following prompt:

Technology and innovation continue to play an increasing role in the everyday lives of Canadians, especially as we are learning to live with the restrictions of COVID-19 outbreaks.

With this in mind,

Discuss how skilled trades and technologies are impacted and will be affected in the future.

- Competitors will write original speeches that reflect creatively on the topic, ensuring they maintain a focus and consider the content implied by the topic. Students are expected to express themselves clearly while capturing the attention of their listening audience.
- By 11:00 PM October 29, 2021, competitors must submit their speeches as a double spaced, justified, Arial 14 point PDF document via email to the following email address: mgailbutler64@gmail.com . If you have not received confirmation within 24 hours that your speech has been received, please email meaghanf@skillscanada.com at the SkillsNL office and resubmit. Students who do not submit speeches by the above deadline and in the specified format will receive a deduction as indicated in the Assessment document.

- Prior to the competition day, competitors will have explored the Skills/Competences Canada website as listed under the Competitions tab to gather information about skilled trades and technology. The intent of this exploration is to support the response to the impromptu topic.
- Competitors will attend a mandatory virtual orientation session at the start of the competition on November 6.
- Following the orientation session, each competitor will present their prepared speech and answer one(1) question based upon their submitted speech.
- Following the presentation of the prepared speeches, each competitor will then respond to a prompt in the impromptu speech portion of the competition.
- Competitors will need to be aware of the fixed location of the video camera and speak to it when delivering their prepared speech, answering the question on their prepared speech and delivering their impromptu speech.
